

The Toler Brothers *West Virginia LIVE

Raised in one of the poorest counties in America, the Toler Brothers didn't even have a radio in their home in West Virginia. Their entertainment was singing around an old upright piano in the living room. The southern gospel harmony born in that humble beginning has provided the background for a combined sixty years of worldwide ministries that have touched literally millions of lives. The brothers, comprised of best-selling author, Stan; platinum-selling songwriter, Terry; and well known inspirational speaker and pastor, Mark; are joined by Joe Hall, tenor singer and ordained minister, along with Zac Sutton, keyboard player extraordinaire.

The Toler Brothers new album - West Virginia Live was produced by Harvest Studios in Huntington, West Virginia, and recorded live at the Hurricane, West Virginia First Church of the Nazarene. The new album features original songs written by Terry Toler such as Don't Look Back and Thinkin' About Home as well as classics such as the beloved hymn Tis So Sweet To Trust In Jesus.

The Toler Brothers previous album, He Still Speaks, was produced by 14-time Dove Award winner and Grammy nominated Michael Sykes. It features some of the finest studio musicians in the country, as well as vocals by southern gospel's Tanya Goodman Sykes, former bass singer with Acappela, Rodney Britt, and Richard Sterben of the Oak Ridge Boys.

West Virginia Live is being distributed to radio stations via TQL Productions in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. DJs - thanks for adding Don't Look Back to your daily playlist. For live interviews contact Margaret at 405-603-7110 or info@tolerbrothers.com.
